CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE: COMMITTEE POLICY

If use of drugs is determined from laboratory work, the applicant (if employed by one of our contractors), will be terminated and all parties will be notified. The application will become null and void.

If arrested and convicted of drug use, possession and/or selling of controlled substances while application is being considered, the application will become null and void.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY STANDARD

Any applicant for apprenticeship who believes that he/she has been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex or age (except the applicant must meet the minimum age requirement as specified in the standards) with regard to apprenticeship, or that equal opportunity standards have not been followed, has 180 days from the date of the alleged discrimination to register a complaint. The complaint shall be in writing and shall be signed by the complainant. It must include the name, address and telephone number of the person allegedly discriminated against, the program sponsor involved, and a brief description of the circumstances of the failure to apply the equal opportunity standard. Complaints may be registered with the JATC, the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training (BAT), the Registration Agency if other than the BAT or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

This written complaint procedure with names and addresses of the organizations to which complaints may be filed, must be provided to all applicants and apprentices.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK: COMMITTEE POLICY

The AEJATC reserves the right to conduct background checks for felony convictions (as listed below) on selected applicants when necessary. This is done to ensure that individuals who join the apprenticeship program are well qualified, have a strong potential to be productive and successful, comply with their positions of trust, and have honestly presented their background and qualifications as outlined in the application materials. If the applicant does not complete the appropriate release form, or if the results of the investigation are unsatisfactory, an official offer shall not be extended.

CONVICTIONS OF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING CRIMINAL FELONIES WILL BE CONSIDERED GOOD CAUSE FOR DENIAL OF ADMISSION TO THE APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM:

1. Felonies involving crimes of moral turpitude;
2. Extortion;
3. Violent Felonies to include, but not limited to:
 - Murder
 - Assault with intent to murder
 - Aggravated assault
 - Rape or aggravated sexual abuse or assault
 - Kidnapping or hostage taking
 - Unlawful possession, use, sale, distribution or manufacture of an explosive or weapon
 - Felony involving a threat
4. Felony involving:
 - Willful destruction of property
 - Importation or manufacture of a controlled substance
 - Burglary
 - Theft
 - Dishonesty, fraud, or misrepresentation
 - Possession or distribution of stolen property
 - Bribery
 - Illegal possession of a controlled substance punishable by a maximum imprisonment of more than one (1) Year
5. Conspiracy to commit any of the aforementioned felonies

If the background investigation was used as a basis for an adverse employment decision (selection, disqualification, etc), the applicant will be notified in writing and be allowed to view the investigation report. The AEJATC provides this service to the applicant.

In certain critical or hard-to-fill positions, offers may be extended to applicants on a conditional basis before the investigation process is finished. Applicants with an adverse background or criminal records check will be terminated immediately upon receipt of the official results.
